

Blue Sky Young Researchers and Innovation Europe

Draft Programme

Tuesday 28 November 2017

14.30 – 18.00

Radisson Blu Royal hotel, Brussels

14.30	Welcome and Introduction	Bernard de Galembert, Innovation and Bioeconomy Director, CEPI
	Infrared assisted drying of tissue	Aron Tysen, RISE Bioeconomy (Research Institutes of Sweden) & Karlstad University
	House of Cards	Jerzy Latka, Delft University of Technology
	Valorization of Eucalyptus globulus byproducts by supercritical fluid extraction: from lab to exploitation	Marcelo Melo, University of Aveiro
	Model Cellulose Spheres for Contact Adhesion	Samuel Pendergraph, Research Institutes of Sweden
	Panel and Q&A
16.00 - 16.30	Coffee break
	How to replace non- renewable packaging materials?	Elina Paakkonen, VTT Technical Research Centre of Finland

	Plafco-process - Production of all-cellulose composites on a paper machine	Tero Tervahartiala, Baden-Wuerttemberg Cooperative State University, Karlsruhe
	Using enzymes to purify cellulose fibres and to produce hemicellulosic oligomers	Jahan Golestani, Grenoble INP - Pagora - LGP2
	Innovative approaches for chemical pulp bleaching with lower environmental impact	Jennifer Marcon, Laboratory of Pulp and Paper Science and Graphic Art, Saint-Martin d'Hères Cedex, France Presented by Dr. Auphélia Burnet, CTP
	Panel and Q&A
	Award Ceremony

Panel: Lena Ek, Södra
 Heiner Grussenmeyer, Stora Enso
 Jane Molony, PAMSA South Africa