CEPI Open Seminar

GPP – Giving Guidance or Causing Confusion:
How far should Green Public Procurement go?

29 November 2006 13.30-15.30 hours
Sheraton Brussels Hotel and Towers, Brussels, BELGIUM

Moderator
Mr. Marco Mensink
Energy & Environment Director
CEPI

13.30-13.45  Moderator’s welcome and introduction -
The different dimensions of Green Public Procurement
Mr. Marco Mensink

13.45-14.00  The European Commission’s GPP policy plans
Mr. Jeremy Wall
Desk Officer Forest based Industries
DG Entreprise – Breydel, European Commission

Member States National GPP plans – forest certification in special

The Netherlands, the United Kingdom and Denmark
Mrs. Janneke de Jong
Senior Policy Advisor
Climate Change and Industry
Ministry of Housing, Spatial Planning and Environment - The Netherlands

Mr. Christian Lundmark Jensen
Co-ordinator on International Forest Policy
Ministry of Environment, Nature Division
Danish Forest and Nature Agency - Denmark

France
Mrs. Véronique Joucla
Technical Advisor
Sustainable Development – Directory of Forest and Rural Affairs
French Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries - France

14.30-14.45  Green Public Procurement in international trade
Mrs. Florence Simonetti
Senior Jurist
Huglo Lepage et Associés Conseil – Belgium

Mr. Bernard Lombard
Trade and Competitiveness Director
CEPI

14.45-15.00  The Forest owners perspective
Mr. Ivar Korsbakken
Special Advisor - Representing CEPF
Norwegian Forest Owners’ Federation - Norway

15.00-15.15  Questions & answers

15.15-15.30  Industry statements and closing remarks
Mr. Marco Mensink
Energy & Environment Director
CEPI